DUNEDIN COMBINED CHURCHES OUTREACH 2017

Ravi Zacharias will be speaking on Truth, Whose Truth? with a public Q&A to follow. The Forsyth Barr Stadium, Sunday 26th February, 7pm.

WE SAID IT WITH FLOWERS - to three graduates, all of them former members of our Y@M group at Mornington. It was the Sunday before Christmas and it was Graduation week for Jasmine and Annabelle Weston, and Vince Neaves. Their majored subjects were as varied as the colours of a rainbow - Jasmine in Archaeology, Annabelle in Fabric and Textiles and Vince in Political Science and Sociology.

A THANKYOU CARD has spoken of their appreciation and for us it sure was a pleasure.

STORY FROM THE MISSION

Client Support Work: Dawn from Take Ten Streets was talking with a gentleman in South Dunedin who was struggling financially and was not able to afford a lot of food. Dawn mentioned the Christmas Day food parcel. He said that he thought he would not be eligible for this, or assistance from food banks, as he was a single man living on his own. Dawn suggested that the CSW may be able to help so he came to visit Anna-Kristy at Little Citizens to see if he could get some assistance around Christmas time as he is a seasonal worker and there is no work for him at the moment. He lives in South Dunedin, and he also brought his friend (and neighbour) with him to this meeting. He has children which he pays child support for, and he also is on a benefit during the off season. They both spoke about how they thought there was not enough support for men living alone in South Dunedin. We talked about how he can access food parcels, and he filled out the paper work for the Christmas Day food parcel. He has made an appointment to catch up next week also about his current housing situation.
