BULLETIN POINTS FROM PARISH COUNCIL

- 1 . We would like to make the parish aware of the extensive contacts Laura black has with politicians across the political spectrum in Wellington, this is of immense strategic value to MMS and we congratulate Laura on this valuable work.
2. We heard a presentation by Laura about the challenges we face as a society over the next two to three years. Inflation, housing issues, labour shortages in health and social care sectors, the impact of long Covid in reducing the labour force and in the cost of care.
3. We were reminded that while we might want to believe it, Covid is not over, there is another wave gathering pace now and there will probably be two or three next year. We acknowledge the wariness and tiredness of people. As a parish we will encourage good self-care and seek to organize our services and events responsibly.
4. We congratulate Elaine Merrett and the Mosgiel MWF for organizing, at very short notice, a talk by our new Mayor; Jules Radich.

5. Officers of Parish Council for 2023 are:

- Chairperson Rev David Poultney
- Secretary Fay Richardson
- Treasurer Lynley Kloogh.
