Church Statement

The MCNZ is releasing this statement consistent with its support of survivors of abuse in its redress scheme.

During the period from 1960 to 1987, Albert Grundy was a Minister with the Church.

He served in various parishes across New Zealand over this period. Set out below are the dates and locations of his appointments with the Church. Albert is now deceased.

There have been three survivors who have come forward to the Church, who have separately reported sexual abuse by Albert Grundy. The Church has accepted these survivors' claims.

The Church invites any other persons who may have concerns about the conduct of Albert Grundy towards them or any other person while he was a Minister, to come forward to the Church or Police.
