Musical Meditations for Passiontide –
Sunday 6 April at 4pm, All Saints' Church, Cumberland St.

Caroline Burchell (soprano) and Claire Barton (mezzo-soprano) will be performing a baroque vocal masterpiece for Passiontide – Pergolesi's Stabat Mater. This famous setting of the ancient hymn describing Mary's response to the death of Christ will be directed by David Burchell and accompanied by an instrumental ensemble of members of the Dunedin Symphony Orchestra. The programme also includes two of Telemann's characterful solo cantatas, for Passion Sunday and Palm Sunday.

Tickets $25 through Eventfinda (fees apply) or at the door (no eftpos). Students $10 at the door; accompanied children free. Promoted by The Little Box of Operas.

At Mornington Fellowship’s March meeting, our guest speaker was Rev. Susan Hamel, who gave a wonderful presentation about her Camino de Frances trip. You can watch it on the parish’s YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/@morningtonmethodist1598
