Gibson Talk Series 3

Dr Liesel Mitchell for the first Gibson Talk Series 3, 2026 to be held on Wednesday evening 7pm, Mornington Methodist Church on February 25, 2026.

The Wonderful World of Sleep

Join Liesel Mitchell as she takes us on a journey into sleep - one that hopefully keeps everyone awake! This talk will question our cultural attitude to sleep, explore scientific knowledge about sleep, note how sleep is affected by and foundational to everything we do, and highlight what this might mean for a culture and work mindset that invests in keeping people sleep-poor. What are the wider implications for our society if we are reinforcing a culture of sleep deprivation? Come along for some thoughtful provocations with Liesel as she delves into the wonderful world of sleep.

Presbyterian Research Network presents:

Christians and Revolution: A Story of Two Soldiers - A talk by Rev Dr Simon Rae

Principal emeritus, Theological Hall, Knox College

Thursday 26 February, 5:30 pm

Seminar Room, KCML, Knox College, Dunedin

The Japanese capitulation in August 1945 left Indonesian Protestant nationalists lamenting the lack of any guidance from their pre-war mission churches about Christian participation in resisting the return of the colonial regime. With the declaration of Independence three days later, in a political vacuum, Indonesia led the process of decolonization in South Asia and Christians had to sort out for themselves a way through conflicting ideologies, factional rivalries, suspicion and distrust. This study looks at how two men responded to the same challenge quite differently: Lieut. General T. B. Simatupang, a military planner, strategist and diplomat, and Lieut. General Djamin Gintings a charismatic field commander in North Sumatra.

Preceded by refreshments from 5 pm. Any questions: Presbyterian Research Centre, 473 0775.
